371/22 DYING TO WORK CAMPAIGN

To accept the motion as follows : Every employee, facing the trauma of a terminal illness diagnosis, should be treated with compassion and understanding in order to assist them at such a distressing time. In society we would expect nothing else, and this should be no different in the workplace. Limited protections do exist for chronic long term degenerative illnesses at work through reasonable adjustments. However, a terminal diagnosis, where life expectancy is not foreseen by a medical professional for longer than 12 months, should be protected to ensure nobody has to undergo the additional stress and worry about their job.
